STATUS OF CLAIMS

1. (Canceled)
2. (Canceled)
3. (Cancelled)
4. (Cancelled)
5. (Currently Amended) The apparatus according to claim ~~2~~ 14 wherein the display comprises:
 - (a) a structure affixed to the table top and disposed, in part, above the number selector,
 - (b) a camera affixed to the structure proximate the singulated ball for viewing the number on the ball, and
 - (c) a display screen affixed to the structure for displaying the camera's view of the singulated ball.
6. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 14 wherein the table top's indicia resembles the indicia of a conventional roulette table, and wherein indicia numbers thirty-seven and thirty-eight are used in place of the conventional indicia numbers zero and double zero.
7. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 14 wherein the selector comprises:

- (a) a numerical processor proximate the table,
- (b) software installed in the processor for selecting a number at random, when actuated, and
- (c) a display communicating with the processor for displaying the selected number.

8. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 7 wherein the random number is selected from a range of one to thirty-eight, inclusive.

9. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 7 further comprising a CRT communicating with the processor by which a dealer controls the software.

10. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 7 further comprising a remote control communicating with the processor for activating the software for selecting a random number.

11. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 10 wherein the random number is selected from a range of one to thirty-eight, inclusive.

12. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 14 wherein the selector comprises:

- (a) a deck of numbered cards,
- (b) a shuffler for arranging the cards in a random sequence, and
- (c) a structure for assisting a dealer in singulating one numbered card from the shuffled deck.

13. (Previously Presented) The apparatus according to claim 12 wherein the display comprises the singulated card disposed to allow players at the table to view the number on the card.

14. (Currently Amended) Apparatus for playing a game of chance generally according to conventional roulette rules, the apparatus comprising:

- (a) a table top including roulette game indicia for placing bets thereupon but without a roulette wheel;

- (b) a selector which when actuated for a game produces a randomly selected winning number from a set of numbers, each number of the set respectively corresponding to a slot on a conventional roulette wheel in which a roulette ball can come to rest; and
- (c) a display adjacent the table top for displaying the selected number, the display being so disposed as to render the displayed number viewable by the players at the table top.

15. (New) An apparatus for playing a game of chance generally according to conventional roulette rules, the apparatus comprising:

- (a) a table top including roulette game indicia for placing bets thereupon but without a roulette wheel;
- (b) a ball selector which, when actuated for a game, randomly singulates one of a plurality of numbered balls contained within a chamber, the number on the singulated ball being the selected winning number; and
- (c) a display adjacent the table top for displaying the selected number, the display being so disposed as to render the displayed number viewable by the players at the table top, the display comprising:
 - (1) a structure affixed to the table top and disposed, in part, above the number selector,
 - (2) a camera affixed to the structure proximate the singulated ball for viewing the number on the ball, and
 - (3) a display screen affixed to the structure for displaying the camera's view of the singulated ball.
